

International Society of Crime Prevention Practitioners National Law Enforcement Explorer Community Crime Prevention Award

The International Society of Crime Prevention Practitioners (ISCPP) has established the Law Enforcement Explorer Community Crime Prevention Award as an annual recognition of Explorer posts that exhibit outstanding support of their communities' crime prevention programs.

This award pays tribute to the exceptional service displayed by these young men and women in responding to the many and varied needs of their communities.

The Award

The Law Enforcement Explorer Community Crime Prevention Award consists of an engraved plaque that is presented by the president of the ISCPP or the president's official representative. The award will be given to qualified law enforcement Explorer posts in recognition of "an act or action representing a contribution of outstanding community crime prevention or programming with emphasis on innovative approaches to crime prevention problems in the community."

Qualifications

1. To be considered, a post must be a participating law enforcement post.
2. The post must have performed "an act or action representing a contribution of outstanding community crime prevention or programming with emphasis on innovative approaches to crime prevention problems in the community" during the previous year.
3. The participating organization, the post Advisor, and the Learning for Life representative must certify that the post has met the criteria for the award.
4. Submit a black-and-white glossy photo (such as a passport photo) for publicity purposes in the event of selection.

Selection

Selection of the recipient will be made by a panel from the ISCPP. The award will be presented at the national law enforcement Explorer conference, or at a local recognition.

About the ISCPP

ISCPP is a network of crime prevention practitioners whose mission is to provide leadership, foster cooperation, encourage information exchange, and seek involvement from all segments of society in the expansion and improvement of crime prevention programs internationally.

The ISCPP has been actively involved in the promotion of law enforcement Exploring since its inception. It is responsible for the design and conduct of the crime prevention competition at each national law enforcement Explorer conference.

The society's sponsorship of the community crime prevention award is an attempt to recognize the significant contribution made by law enforcement Explorer posts nationally to crime prevention programming generally.
